

WHO?

Young people across North Vancouver, the Lower Mainland, across Canada and the world! Youth Week is celebrated internationally, with British Columbia being one of the most successful (and busy) areas for Youth Week activities on the planet!

WHAT?

Youth Week is an international celebration of the efforts, energies, and positive contributions of youth. It is an opportunity for people around the world to learn about, and from, young people. It is also recognition of the important role that youth play in their communities all year round.

WHERE?

Right here in North Vancouver

WHEN?

May 1st to 7th, 2014

WHY?

Youth Week is designated to promote and raise awareness of the many accomplishments and successes that youth achieve throughout the year to their peers and to a wider community.

Goals include:

- Encourage youth to be involved in their communities and to take an active role in their education, recreation, and personal development
- Encourage youth from different communities together to talk about common issues, concerns, and experiences
- Recognize and celebrate youth diversity, energy and contributions
- Provide opportunities for people of all ages to learn more about youth and youth issues
- Focus on the positive images and attitudes of youth by publicly promoting and honouring youth, as well as by acknowledging youth accomplishments and their role in society
- Give youth a voice or a platform for speaking and acting positively
- Facilitate community involvement in sponsoring, supporting, and implementing events for and with youth, while continuing to ensure that youth have a voice in the process
- TO HAVE FUN!

